

Bringing Families Home, a referral-based program, was created to decrease the number of families in the child welfare system that are at danger of homelessness, to improve family reunification, and to avoid foster care placement. The BFH program was introduced to California in 2016, and launched in San Joaquin County in 2023.

Monique Plair

Case Manager

Monique@marymagdalencs.com

- > Creates Goals with Clients
- > Plans and Implements Training Objectives
- > Completes Program Reports
- > Hosts Check-In Meetings with HSA Staff

Nora Whalin

Navigator & Stabilizer

Nora@marymagdalencs.com

- > Assists Clients with finding Housing
- > Facilitates Stabilization After Housing is Secure
- > Submits Program Expense Requests
- > Works with Clients on Goals
- > Completes Program Reports
- > Hosts Check-In Meetings with HSA Staff

"Helping Individuals by starting where they are."

www.marymagdalencs.com